- Pre-paid and activation telecommunications cards as well as other cards having similar functions,
- Computer, tablet, mobile phone, satellite navigation equipment, microchip, microprocessor, memory card, computer software.

3.4. The Customer can file Service Orders to DSV, without additional charge, in the format specified below:

- myDSV platform, after prior contacting DSV's sales agent,
- API – interface between a customer system and myDSV platform,
- an Excel file via myDSV – once the Parties have acknowledged a format of an Excel file allowing for an import of data from Excel to myDSV platform,
- EDI – interface between the systems used by the Customer and DSV.

If the above is not possible, the Customer can file Service Orders to DSV in documentary form or in writing (e-mail, fax, letter) for an additional fee specified by DSV.

3.5. If the Customer has filed the Service Order to DSV in the form set out in point 3.4 these Terms and Conditions, it means that the Customer accepts: all terms of the Service Order, these Terms and Conditions, other terms agreed upon between DSV and the Customer and its obligation to pay the agreed Price.

3.6. The Customer shall enclose to its first Service Order copies of the following documents: statistical ID number "REGON", tax ID number "NIP", an excerpt confirming the registration of the company, and in the case of natural persons (including civil companies) a copy of the document evidencing its registered address and personal ID number "PESEL".

3.7. The Customer shall provide DSV with all details necessary for DSV to perform the Services including, but not limited to certificates, information on the nature and classification of the Goods, information about obligation of goods monitoring during carriage according to Monitoring System Act with the reference number and key number for carrier (if it is necessary) stock keeping unit information, transshipment method, storage and transport conditions in respect of temperature and humidity, etc. The Customer guarantees the correctness and completeness of such details.

3.8. The Customer warrants to DSV that the Goods are Neutral. In the case of Goods other than Neutral Goods, the Customer shall immediately inform DSV of such fact and shall obtain and deliver to DSV in a timely manner all necessary concessions, permits or authorisations for import, export, carriage, storage, transit and/or (re)transfer relating to such Goods.

3.9. The Customer shall prepare and make the Goods available for the Services correctly packaged, classified, sealed, labelled and/or addressed.

3.10. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, the Customer shall perform the loading, stowage and unloading the Goods in the facility of the Customer or at a designated site for the delivery/collection of the Goods. If DSV is requested to assist with the loading, stowing or unloading the Goods, this assistance shall be carried out at the cost and risk of the Customer.

3.11. The Customer warrants that it is authorized to accept and accepts these Terms and Conditions on behalf of itself and for and on behalf of the Owner and warrants that it shall adhere to applicable legislation in relation to DSV Services.

3.12. The Customer authorises DSV to exercise full examination of the Goods, including their internal contents, also with the participation of a customs officer (unpacking, unwrapping the foil, etc.).

3.13. The Customer will be responsible for the reasonable costs and expenses of DSV for such losses as DSV may suffer and for all claims made against DSV because the Goods does not meet any of the restrictions or conditions in these Terms and Conditions, including Section 3.3., 3.7. and 3.8. above, or because of any refusal or suspension of the Services or return of the Good by DSV. In the case of the return of the Goods, the Customer will also be responsible for paying all the Price for the Service.

3.14. If the Customer submits to DSV the Good which fails to comply with any of the restrictions or conditions in these Terms and Conditions, including Section 3.3. above, without DSV' express written consent, DSV will not be liable for any loss howsoever arising which the Customer may suffer in connection with the performance by DSV of the Services in respect of such Good (regardless of whether that failure to comply has caused or contributed to the loss and notwithstanding any negligence of DSV or any negligence of its employees or subcontractors, except willful misconduct).

3.15. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, DSV shall be entitled to enter into contracts on behalf of itself and without notice to the Customer:

- a) for the carriage of Goods by any route, means or person,
- b) for the carriage of Goods of any description, whether containerized or not, on or under the deck of any vessel,
- c) for the storage, packing, transshipment, loading, unloading or handling of Goods by any person at any place,
- d) for the carriage or storage of Goods in containers or with other goods of whatever nature,
- e) for the performance of its own obligations, and to do such acts as DSV reasonably considers may be necessary or incidental to the performance of DSV's obligations.

3.16. DSV shall be entitled (without incurring any additional liability), but shall be under no obligation, to depart from the Customer's Instructions in any respect if DSV reasonably considers there is a good reason to do so in the Customer's interest.

3.17. DSV may at any time comply with the orders or recommendations given by any Authority. The responsibility and liability of DSV in respect of the Goods shall cease on the delivery or other disposition of the Goods in accordance with such orders or recommendations.

3.18. If at any time DSV reasonably considers that the carriage of the Goods should not be undertaken or continued or only continued after effecting any necessary incidental matters or incurring additional expense or/and fees or risk, in case of including but limited to applicable export controls regulations, DSV shall be entitled to:

- a) abandon the carriage of such Goods or
- b) effect such unforeseen and necessary additional matters and/or incur such additional expense or/and fees, as may be reasonably necessary in order to enable the carriage to be effected or further effected and the Customer is obligated to reimburse to DSV all such additional expense or/and fees incurred.

3.19. Where DSV is entitled to call upon the Customer, consignee, sender or Owner to take delivery of the Goods at a designated time and place and delivery of the Goods, and is not taken at the designated time and place; DSV shall be entitled to store the Goods at the sole risk and expense of the Customer.

3.20. DSV shall have the right to enforce against the Owner and the Customer jointly and severally any liability of the Customer to DSV, including liability resulting from these Conditions, which should be paid by the Customer to DSV or to any other person and which upon demand have not been paid.

4. Business ethics

4.1. DSV will conduct the Services in accordance with the DSV Code of Conduct and commits its subcontractors to adherence of the principles of the Supplier Code of Conduct of DSV.

4.2. The Customer shall conduct its business in an ethical and legal manner.

4.3. DSV shall not be liable for loss, damage or delay of the Goods due to DSV's adherence to the principles of the DSV Code of Conduct.

5. Dangerous Goods

5.1. In case when the Customer sends to DSV Service Order which includes transportation of Dangerous Goods, then the Customer may forward to transportation only such Goods which meet the requirements of the current European ADR Contract, and which are allowed for transportation or which are allowed for transportation in Unit Load and shall provide DSV with any data and information required to effect the transport in compliance with the European ADR Contract. Within the scope specified above the Customer is obliged to meet the requirements set out in item 1.4.2.1 of the European ADR Contract, and in particular:

- a) make sure that the Dangerous Goods are classified and allowed for transportation in accordance with the European ADR Contract;
- b) provide DSV and the driver with appropriate data and information and, if required, any necessary shipment and accompanying documents (permit, admissions, notifications, certificates etc.);
- c) use only such packages which are admitted for transportation of specific materials and have designations required by the European ADR Contract;
- d) observe the requirements regarding the shipment procedures and limitations.

5.2. In case of non-performance or improper performance by the Customer or persons for whose acts and negligence the Customer is responsible of its duties and obligations set out in Section 5.1. these Terms and Conditions, the Customer shall be obliged to cover any costs, damages, liabilities and expenses resulting therefrom. The Customer shall be obliged to indemnify and hold DSV harmless against any liability towards third parties which might arise from infringement by the Customer of the provisions of Section 5.1. and it shall be obliged to enter in the place of DSV in any proceedings initiated against DSV due to the abovenamed reasons.

5.3. Failure of the Customer to provide in the Service Order information that the Goods are Dangerous Goods, means that the Customer declares that the Goods are not Dangerous Goods.

6. Transport Services

6.1. If DSV accepts a Service Order for Transport Services from the Customer, it means that DSV being freight forwarder enters into the rights and obligations of a contracting carrier who undertakes to provide Transport Services professionally, in its own name, but for or on behalf of the Customer.

6.2. The Customer can submit to DSV the Service Order for transport of Goods which are covered by the road monitoring system in line with the provisions of the Monitoring System Act (hereinafter referred to as "Monitoring System") only if he obtains priori written consent of DSV for performing such transport. If DSV accepts transport of Goods covered by Monitoring System, then the Customer is liable towards DSV for reporting such Goods in the register specified in the Monitoring System Act (hereinafter referred to as "Register") and the Customer shall provide to DSV the following before the commencement of the Transport Service: (i) reference number (hereinafter referred to as "SENT reference number") and (ii) key number for the carrier for the report.

6.3. The obligation of the Customer to report the carriage of Goods to the Register and to provide to DSV the SENT reference number and the key number for the carrier does not apply if the place of commencement of the carriage and the place of completion of the carriage are not situated within the territory of Poland (transit through the territory of Poland) – in such case, the Customer is obliged to notify DSV about the fact that the Goods are subject to the Monitoring System and shall provide DSV with all and any information about the Goods needed to report it to the Register, such as the type of the Goods, CN or PKWiU code, amount, gross weight or volume of the Goods (including the volume of individual collective packages).

6.4. The Service Order for the carriage of the Goods subject to the Monitoring System may be placed only using a dedicated Service Order form, whose current template is available at www.dsv.com/pl-pl/ (hereinafter referred to as "Monitored Order SENT"). Subject to point 6.3., the Customer shall place e.g. the SENT reference number and the key number for the carrier in the Monitored Order SENT.

6.5. The Monitored Order SENT must be sent to one of the following e-mail addresses: sent.lodz@pl.dsv.com, sent.oltarzew@pl.dsv.com, sent.czelandz@pl.dsv.com, sent.komorniki@pl.dsv.com, sent.wroclaw@pl.dsv.com, sent.gdansk@pl.dsv.com, sent.kampinos@pl.dsv.com, sent.krakow@pl.dsv.com, sent.bialystok@pl.dsv.com, sent.szczecin@pl.dsv.com.

6.6. The Monitored Order SENT should be reported:

- for domestic transport, no later than by 10.00 a.m. on the day the Goods are picked up;
- for international transport, no later than by 4.00 p.m. on the day preceding the day the Goods are picked up.

6.7. If the Register required to generate the relevant reference number and the key number is unavailable, the Customer is responsible for providing DSV with the document that replaces the report and the confirmation that the competent authority accepted such document before the commencement of carriage.

6.8. The Customer is liable towards DSV for changing or updating the details of the Goods subject to the Monitoring System in the Register, by the deadlines and on the terms and conditions specified in the Monitoring System Act, and shall notify DSV about each such change or update – in the form agreed for the submission of the Monitored Order SENT.

6.9. If the commissioned carriage of the Goods is not related to performing activities subject to taxation with the goods and services tax and is not subject to the Monitoring System on the terms and conditions outlined in Article 3(7) of the Monitoring System Act, the Customer is liable for issuing and providing to DSV a document that confirms the inter-storage movement and contains the information specified in Article 3(7) of the Monitoring System Act or shall provide such information to DSV along with the Service Order.

6.10. If the Customer fails to provide DSV with the SENT reference number and the key number for the carrier, or the document that replaces the report and the confirmation that the competent authority accepted such document, or the Customer provides information concerning the Goods that is incorrect or incomplete, or places to DSV Service Order for the carriage of the Goods subject to the Monitoring System in a manner incompatible with the above principles, DSV is entitled to: (i) refuse to render the Transport Service, (ii) suspend the rendering of the Transport Service, (iii) withdraw from rendering the Transport Service. If DSV withdraws from rendering the Transport Service, the Customer shall pay the agreed price for rendering such a service. Additionally, the Customer shall reimburse to DSV the costs incurred by DSV in good faith and in connection with the withdrawal from or suspension of rendering the Transport Service.

6.11. A Service Order which additionally includes an order for the transportation of return packages, or an order for a service of delivery paid COD (Cash on Delivery), requires individual arrangements and a written confirmation by DSV.

6.12. The Customer undertakes not to tender for transportation of any Goods which require temperature control without previously giving written notice of their nature and the particular temperature range to be maintained.

6.13. In case of a temperature-controlled Container stuffed by or on behalf of the Customer, the Customer undertakes that:

- a) the Container has been properly pre-cooled or pre-heated as appropriate;
- b) the Goods have been properly pre-cooled or pre-heated and properly stuffed in the Container; and
- c) the Container's thermostatic controls have been properly set by the Customer.

6.14. If the requirements of Section 6.3. or Section 6.4. are not complied with, DSV shall not be liable for any loss of or damage to the Goods whatsoever caused by such non-compliance.

6.15. Unless agreed in writing, DSV shall not be obliged to make any declaration for the purposes of any statute, convention or contract as to the nature or value of any Goods or as to any special interest in delivery or to make any declaration as to specific stowage requirements of any Goods.

6.16. Unless agreed in writing that the Goods shall depart by or arrive by a particular date, DSV accepts no responsibility for departure or arrival dates of Goods. ETA (Estimated Time of Arrival) or ETD (Estimate Time of Departure) shall not be construed as a time guarantee on the part of DSV.

6.17. Unless agreed in writing, DSV performs services whose duration is expressed in Business Days and all dates of delivery provided in the DSV Offer or in the Agreement refer to days (24 hours) or their multiples only. The first day of transportation means the day following the day of loading. Transport time is expressed in Business Days only.

6.18. DSV performs Services of delivers and collects Goods during the customary Working Hours only, i.e. 8:00 a.m. – 5:00. p.m. An Order to deliver or collect Goods at other times or at a specified hour has to be agreed in writing and confirmed by DSV and may be subject to an additional fee.

6.19. Any claims concerning to non-performance or improper performance of the Transport Services, delay, loss of, damage to or shortage of the Goods shall be lodged to DSV according to rules and conditions set out in Claims Rules.

6.20. DSV is not liable for the losses incurred in the property of the Customer or of third parties, which are due to the failure to perform or the improper performance by the Customer of the obligations indicated in points from 6.2. to 6.9. of these General Terms and Conditions, and if claims are lodged by third parties, the Customer shall release DSV from liability for the incurred loss.

6.21. If the Customer or persons for whose actions the Customer is liable fails to perform or improperly performs the obligations specified in points 6.3., 6.3., 6.4., 6.7., 6.8., or 6.9. of these General Terms and Conditions, the Customer shall remedy all and any losses incurred by DSV or their subcontractors and shall cover all and any costs, charges, or expenses arising therefrom, in particular, the Customer shall compensate for all and any penalties or charges imposed on DSV or DSV's subcontractors under the Monitoring System Act.

6.22. At the Customer's request, DSV may perform a Transport Service in either the Direct Delivery System (DSV Direct) or in the Groupage System (DSV Groupage) at a temperature above 5°C guaranteed by DSV at the time of release of the Goods to the Consignee (hereinafter referred to as the "Positive Temperature Transport Service"). When the Positive Temperature Transport Service is consigned, the Customer shall accept that DSV is released from its obligation to provide the Customer, the Consignee or any other person entitled to claim damages with any evidence (e.g. thermo-printing) which will confirm the temperature at which the Goods were transported at earlier stages of the transport, and consequently the Customer acknowledges and accepts the following rules and presumptions:

- The Goods shall be presumed to have been transported throughout the route of carriage at a temperature corresponding to the temperature of the Goods ascertained at the time of their delivery to the Consignee,
- The Customer, the Consignee or any other person authorized to make a claim shall be obliged to prove that the Goods were transported at a temperature lower than that established at the moment of delivery and that the Goods were damaged due to failure to observe a specified transport temperature,
- The Consignee of the Goods shall be obliged to check the temperature of the Goods at the moment of delivery and note down any reservations in the consignment note - acceptance of the Goods without reservations as to their temperature shall cause expiration of claims for damage to the Goods as a result of failure to observe a specified temperature of carriage, unless: (i) the failure to test the temperature of the Goods was due to the exclusive fault of DSV or (ii) the failure to maintain the positive carriage temperature of the Goods was due to the wilful misconduct or gross negligence of DSV,
- The Positive Temperature Transport Service is provided between 1 November and 15 March each year.

6.23. DSV shall be obliged to comply with the obligations regarding the date of acceptance of the Goods for transport or the date of their delivery provided that the daily or weekly fluctuations of the Customer's activity are within the range of +/- 20% of the average daily or average weekly quantity of shipments specified in the Offer or in the Contract (hereinafter the "Limits"). If the aforementioned Limits are exceeded, DSV's responsibility for the timely performance of the carriage of the Goods is excluded, and both Parties undertake to find an acceptable solution both as regards the organization of the carriage and the amount of the Price.

6.24. If the consignee or the Customer refuse the goods because of: (i) partial loss or damage of Goods, or (ii) delay in delivery of Goods, the Customer shall be obligated to carry cost which occurs as a result of returned such goods to a sender.

7. Warehousing Services

7.1. DSV is also a logistics operator, who provides professional Warehousing Services for the Customers' Goods.

7.2. All Goods stored in the DSV warehouses remain property of the Customer. The Customer must have an all risks property insurance covering the maximum value of the Goods deposited in the DSV warehouses. The Customer shall submit to DSV a certificate to certify the possession of such policy and the General Terms and Conditions of Insurance.

7.3. In case when the Goods are delivered to the DSV Warehouse for the first time, the Customer shall provide DSV with all logistical data of the Goods such as the structure of packages, conditions of storage, indexes and trade names of the Goods and additional information required for the proper provision of the Services.

7.4. Service Orders with the date of release of the Goods within 24h must be filed to DSV until 02:00 p.m. on the day preceding the release of the order. DSV reserves its right to handle the Service Orders sent after 02:00 p.m. in the same way as those sent on the next day.

7.5. The Customer shall submit to DSV a specification of all order numbers for Services Orders sent on that day by 04:00 p.m. DSV shall confirm that the specification matches the received Service Orders.

7.6. Supplies of Goods to the DSV Warehouse are received between 8:00 a.m. and 04:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. DSV reserves its right to postpone unloading to the next day if the car arrived after 04:00 p.m.

7.7. The Customer is responsible for the proper designation and packaging of the Goods supplied to DSV Warehouses.

7.8. Supplies of the Goods shall not be accepted unless the Goods are stacked on EUR pallets or on other certified pallets, compliant with standard PN-M-78216 (UIC 435-2).

7.9. If the Goods are packed in containers (in bulk supplies), then the Goods shall be unloaded and palletised on EUR pallets against an additional payment.

7.10. If the Agreement between the Customer and DSV includes management of the Customer's pallets, the settlement of EUR pallets with the Customer takes place according to monthly cycles, following this example: Balance = (Pallets received from the Customer – Pallets released from the warehouse + Pallets received from consignee) Balance with Customer is reduced by the pallet consumption factor equals 14,3% and is calculated per pallets received from consignee. The detailed rules of management of EUR pallets may be agreed upon in a separate agreement between the Parties.

7.11. DSV is not responsible for pallets not returned by consignee on delivery and for the vindication of pallets from recipients of the Goods.

7.12. Unless otherwise agreed upon between DSV and the Customer, the Goods are stored on racks or stacks, depending on the type of Goods. Standard conditions of storage for the Goods are: temperature 5 to 30 degrees C and humidity of 75%.

7.13. The DSV Warehouses open on Sunday at 10:00 p.m. and close on Friday at 10:00 p.m. If Services must be provided beyond standard working hours or on public holidays, DSV shall charge an additional fee agreed upon with the Customer.

7.14. If the Goods are handled by another entity than DSV, then the administrative fees paid on that account by DSV for IT and documentation services, etc. shall be charged to the Customer.

7.15. DSV may relocate the Goods stored on behalf of the Customer to a different location within a reasonable geographical vicinity of the existing warehouse. If DSV relocates the Goods on DSV's own accord, DSV shall not charge the Customer for the costs related to the relocation.

7.16. DSV shall be obligated to comply with its duties stipulated in the Offer or in the Agreement and concerning to the quality of the Services rendered and their punctuality provided that the daily variations of Customer's activity are within +/- 15% average daily demand for personnel, equipment and storage surface stipulated in the Offer or in the Agreement. If the aforementioned standards are exceeded, both Parties undertake to find an acceptable solution both in terms of organisational and financial matters.

8. Customs Services

DSV performs Customs Services only as a Direct Representative and according to terms and conditions set out in the provisions of DSV General Rules of Customs Services.

9. Freight Forwarding Services

DSV provides Freight Forwarding Services according to these Terms and Conditions and according to the provisions of OPWS. OPWS shall apply to Freight Forwarding Services in all matters not stipulated in these Terms and Conditions.

9a. COD service

9a.1. The COD Service is provided exclusively as an Additional Service to the domestic Transport Service.

9a.2. DSV renders the COD Service exclusively to the Clients, who conclude an additional agreement with DSV, in the form specified by DSV, which defines detailed conditions for the performance of the COD Service.

9a.3. The Customer shall provide DSV, in the form specified by DSV, with a number of a bank account maintained in Polish zlotys, where the COD amount is to be transferred. The bank account referred to above must be maintained in a bank established in Poland or in a branch of a foreign bank established in Poland or in a cooperative savings and loan association established in Poland; and must be disclosed within the Customer's data on the list of VAT taxpayers (the so-called 'white list'). A change of the bank account number requires an amendment to the agreement indicated in 9a.2. above and shall come into force within 14 days from the date of concluding the amendment to the agreement - until this change DSV has the right to transfer the amount of collection to the account previously indicated by the Customer.

9a.4 Unless the Parties agree otherwise, DSV shall perform the COD Service under the following conditions:

- the Customer is required to enter the amount of the collection in the Consignment Order, via the MyDSV portal;
- the amount of COD may not exceed in one Order on a given day to a given Consignee the amount of 10000 PLN gross, and simultaneously for many orders on the same day to one Consignee the amount of 10000 PLN gross;
- the collection amount must be paid in cash, in Polish zloty;
- the Client is obliged to ensure that the Consignee has, at the moment of delivering the Goods, the prepared (deducted) amount of collection resulting from the COD Service - the driver is not obliged to have money in order to give the rest;
- delivery of the Goods to the Consignee is conditional on the Consignee paying the COD amount - the COD amount must be paid by the Consignee prior to commencement of unloading of the Goods;

f) the Client has the right to cancel the COD Service at no cost until the Goods are loaded on the DSV means of transport - the cancellation must be made in a documentary form.

9a.5. In the event of refusal to the COD amount, DSV shall refuse to release the Goods to the Customer, shall inform the Customer thereof, and shall place the Goods at the Customer's disposal. DSV shall be entitled to charge the Customer an appropriate fee for carrying out the Customer's additional instructions or for returning the Goods to their sender, in accordance with the applicable Price List.

9a.6. In the event of non-performance or improper performance of the Customer's obligations set out above or non-fulfilment of the conditions set out in paragraphs 9a.2. or 9a.3. of these General Terms and Conditions, DSV shall be released from its obligation to perform the COD Service and DSV's liability for any damage incurred by the Customer on that account shall be excluded.

9a.7. DSV shall remit the amount of the COD within 10 working days from the day following the date of delivery of the Goods and the remittance of the amount of the COD by the Customer. The date of payment of the collection shall be the date on which DSV's bank account is debited.

9a.8. If DSV delivers the Goods to the Customer despite the Customer's failure to pay the amount of COD indicated by the Customer, provided that all prerequisites justifying DSV's liability for non-performance or improper performance of the COD Service are met (all conditions specified above shall be fulfilled), DSV shall be obliged to pay the Customer damages in the amount not exceeding the amount which should have been collected by DSV in accordance with the Customer's Order, but only after a prior ineffective exhaustion of legal possibilities of enforcing the payment from the Customer, which means in particular ineffective enforcement proceedings against the Customer.

9a.9. The Customer shall be liable and obliged to indemnify DSV against any liability and to repair any damage suffered by DSV due to the Customer's non-performance or improper performance of its obligations under this clause. In particular, the Customer shall be liable for any costs arising from taxes, interest, fees, fines or penalties paid by DSV in connection with the transfer of the amount of the collection to a bank account designated by the Customer that is not disclosed on the 'white list' or does not meet the other requirements set out above.

9a.10. DSV shall have the right to set off any due receivables owed to it by the Customer against the Customer's receivables arising from DSV's performance of the COD Service. The Customer shall not have the right to set off its claim arising as a result of DSV's performance of the COD Service against any claims of DSV towards the Customer.

10. Prices and payment terms

10.1. The Customer shall pay the agreed Prices as stipulated in the Service Order, in the Agreement or in the Offer. If no Prices have been agreed upon between the Parties, the Customer shall pay the market price for the Services.

10.2. The Prices do not include VAT, customs duties and other government taxes related to the Goods. These costs and taxes shall be the sole responsibility of the Customer.

10.3. Unless otherwise agreed upon the Customer shall pay the invoiced amount 14 (fourteen) days from the date of DSV's issuance of the invoice. It is considered for tax purposes, that any issuance and delivery to the Client of a correcting invoice decreasing tax basis (in minus), which was issued due to DSV mistake, constitutes the documentary evidence for determination of new conditions of sales and meets the obligations arising from Article 29a Section 13 and Article 86 Section 19a of Polish VAT Act. Therefore, it confirms fulfilment of the conditions for reducing the tax basis or the amount of due VAT on the date of issuance of correcting invoice. Lack of objection to the provisions of provided correcting invoice shall be considered as an acceptance thereof and confirmation by the Client that he was informed about reducing the tax basis for VAT purposes.

10.4. If any outlay is made by DSV on behalf of the Customer related to VAT, duties or other taxes, then these outlays shall be paid by the Customer on Net Cash terms.

10.5. To save the natural environment, with written consent from the Customer, the VAT invoice for Services provided by DSV shall be sent to the Customer in electronic form.

10.6. Additional fees may be charged on the Price for the Service, such as: fee for paper invoice, administration fee, fee for return of stock issue confirmation (WZ)/an original CMR letter/waybill, fee for the monitoring of payments.

10.7. If the payment of the Price for the Services is delayed, DSV is entitled to vindicate legal interest for such delay and to charge the costs of vindication of such receivables to the Customer. If no legislation applies regarding interests for late payment, DSV may charge 2% (two percent) per month from the due date of the overdue invoice. DSV shall furthermore be allowed to charge the Customer a fee for vindication actions according to provisions of the Act of 8 March 2013 on combating late payment in commercial transactions. Charges of interests and dunning fees shall be in accordance with applicable law.

10.8. DSV may charge the Customer for additional costs such as but not limited to demurrage, additional or unexpected storage or handling, redirection of the Goods during transit or failed attempts of pick-up or delivery of the Goods not attributable to DSV. For waiting of vehicle not caused by DSV in the place of loading/unloading, DSV may charge the Customer additional fee:

- in international DSV Groupage System and in international DSV Courier Services System (DSV XPress): 30 Euro for each commenced hour of waiting of vehicle (15 minutes is free of charge),
- in international DSV Direct System: 35 Euro for each commenced hour of waiting of vehicle, but not more than 350 Euro per day (first two hours is free of charge),
- in domestic DSV Groupage System and in domestic DSV Courier Services System (DSV Xpress): 90 PLN for each commenced hour of waiting of vehicle (15 minutes is free of charge),
- in domestic DSV Direct System: 100 PLN for each commenced hour of waiting of vehicle, but not more than 1000 PLN per day (first two hours is free of charge).

Payment of the agreed additional charge by the Customer does not prevent DSV from asserting a claim for supplementary compensation according to general principles.

10.9. Unless otherwise agreed upon, the Prices shall be valid for 3 (three) months from the signing of the Agreement or submitting the Offer by DSV. DSV may review the Prices and notify the Customer of any changes.

10.10. DSV reserves its right to verify whether the statements submitted by the Customer and incorporated in the Offer addressed to the Customer match the actual state of affairs, taking into account the data stored in the DSV computer systems. In case when DSV detects material inconsistencies between the actual state of affairs and the statements submitted by the Customer, DSV is entitled to unilaterally verify the prices declared in the Offer or in the Agreement which were prepared on the basis of such statements. The Prices for Services may also be changed in the case of changes of the parameters of the shipment or the structure of the Goods. The change of price or of other terms and conditions of cooperation set out in the Offer or in the Agreement under the provisions of this section will take place automatically on the basis of a unilateral declaration by DSV and will not require the Customer's consent in order to be valid, subject to the reservation that such a change shall come into force upon the lapse of 7 days from the date of the Customer being served a notice in a documentary form by DSV relative to the change of price or of other terms and conditions of the Offer or the Agreement, under this section of the Terms and Conditions.

10.11. DSV reserves its right to automatically correct the Prices in the case of a change of external costs which have an impact on the cost of performance of such services, as i.a. cost of fuel, transport by ferry, over bridges and through tunnels, taxes and any type of road toll paid by transport providers (regardless of their form), and in particular the Prices for DSV Services are increased from July 1, 2011 as new fees are enforced by virtue of the Regulation of the Board of Ministers dated March 22, 2011 on National roads and their sections on which electronic toll is collected and rates of such electronic toll (Journal of Laws of 2011, No. 80, item 433 as amended) and as a result of new fees imposed on behalf of the holders of highway concessions. The Prices shall be automatically increased from the day on which the legislation imposing new taxes, road fees or fees for transport by ferry, over bridges and through tunnels comes into force or from the date of increase of taxes, tolls and fees for transport by ferry, over bridges and through tunnels already enforced.

10.12. DSV reserves itself the right to unilaterally change the prices set out in the Offer or in the Agreement in the case of a change in market conditions (e.g. prices for services, costs of service provision, rolling stock availability, etc.) relative to the performance of the services to which such prices refer. The change of price under this section will take place automatically on the basis of a unilateral declaration by DSV and will not require the Customer's consent in order to be valid, subject to the reservation that such a change shall come into force upon the lapse of 30 days from the date of the Customer being served a notice in a documentary form by DSV of the change in price under this section of the Terms and Conditions.

10.13. The Prices shall be indexed each time by the amount of the Bunker Adjustment Factor (BAF) or by the Currency Adjustment Factor (CAF) if the Price for the Service is set in other currency than PLN, applicable in the specific period. Their actual and former values can be found on the DSV website www.dsv.com/pl-pl/.

10.14. All Transport Prices which are not calculated in PLN shall be charged in PLN in accordance with the average exchange rate valid on the cargo load day, as published by the National Bank of Poland on the previous Business Day. If the Warehousing Prices were set in other currency than PLN, the Warehousing Services shall be settled always after denomination into PLN using the average rate of exchange of the National Bank of Poland published in the table on the last Business Day preceding the date of the VAT invoice.

10.15. The Prices for the Services specified in the Offer, in the Service Order or in the Agreement will be automatically indexed quarterly as of the 1st day of the second month following the end of the quarter for which the indicator is calculated, by the percentage quarterly index published by DSV on the website www.dsv.com/pl-pl/ (for example: the indexation percentage for the quarter Q2 2022 comes into effect on August 1, 2022 and is valid for the next 3 months (from August to October 2022)). The percentage indexation reflects changes in the cost of services provided by DSV and is prepared on the basis of data published by the Central Statistical Office of Poland. The changed of the Prices under this section will take place automatically and will not require the Customer's consent to be valid.

10.16. In the event of early termination of the Service Order or Agreement for any reason all outstanding invoices issued by DSV shall automatically become due and payable at the time when the termination notice is served.

10.17. DSV reserves the right to hire an external vindicator to monitor the Customer's financial standing together with any occurrences regarding the Customer and payments to DSV, so that the best possible conditions of co-operation are ensured.

10.18. DSV may offer a credit limit to its Customers. The amount of such limit depends on the Customer's financial standing and the form of collateral offered by the Customer. DSV reserves the right to cease the performance of the Services for the particular Customer, if the Current Balance on the Customer's Account exceeds the limit of credit assigned to it by DSV.

10.19. Repeated failure (understood as more than two (2) incidents within a period of six (6) consecutive months) of the Customer and/or any payment agency which act on behalf of the Customer to timely release or execute payment for the services rendered by DSV and/or its Affiliates within the aforementioned credit terms could at the discretion of DSV result in the immediate revocation of the credit and all other Services will be provided subject to payment on receipt.

10.20. Any objection of the Customer to an invoice submitted by DSV and/or its Affiliates shall not relieve the Customer and/or any payment agency which acts on behalf of the Customer of fulfilling the obligations to timely release or execute payment for the Services rendered and shall not limit DSV and/or its Affiliates' ability to immediately revoke the credit resulting in that subsequent that all other services will be provided subject to payment on receipt.

10.21. DSV and/or its Affiliates shall be entitled to exercise a lien on the Goods and any documents relating thereto, for any amount due to it/them, at any time from the Customer, including the costs of recovering the same and may enforce such lien in any reasonable manner, including sale or disposal of the Goods. This right of lien is extended to cover not only the specific transaction or services related to the lack of payment, but also to any and all obligations/accounts receivables towards DSV and/or its Affiliates existing at any time.

10.22. DSV and/or its Affiliates reserve the right at any time to take out a debtor insurance policy ("Debtor Insurance") on the Customer and/or its Affiliates covering any debts that the Customer and/or its Affiliates may incur pursuant to the Services that DSV and/or its Affiliates may render under the Service Order or the Agreement. If the Debtor Insurance is rejected or revoked due to conditions on the part of the Customer and the Customer is in default payment of legitimate invoices DSV shall have the right of lien over the carried Goods. DSV may waive its right of lien in the Goods if the Customer provides DSV with an adequate surety of payment.

10.23. It is especially agreed that in the event where (i) the debtor insurance company rejects or revokes or in any way limits the debtor insurance coverage concerning the Customer and/or its subsidiaries, notwithstanding the reason, or (ii) DSV and/or its Affiliates at its discretion may find that the creditworthiness of the Customer and/or its subsidiaries is not satisfactory, DSV and/or its Affiliates reserve the right either to:

- re-negotiate the entire agreement,
 - demand that the Customer and/or its affiliates provides appropriate security to the reasonable satisfaction of DSV and/or its Affiliates, e.g. a bank guarantee from a reputable bank of an amount subject to the discretionary determination of DSV and/or its Affiliates; or
 - terminate the agreement with immediate effect,
- subject to the sole discretion of DSV and/or its Affiliates.

10.24. If the event that the Customer in its capacity as parent company is entering to the agreement or later becomes a parent company, the Customer shall be joint and several liable with those of its affiliates which at any time may incur debts to DSV and/or its Affiliates pursuant to the Services that DSV and/or its Affiliates may render to them under this and other agreements. This joint and several liabilities shall, however, not apply in so far as and as long as ay debtor insurance coverage is full, unlimited and unrestricted and has not been rejected, revoked or limited by the debtor insurance company with respect to the individual Affiliates.

10.25. The Customer may terminate the Service Order sent to DSV without payment of compensation to DSV if the Service Order is terminated no less than 48 (forty eight) hours before the scheduled performance of the Services commences. If the Customer terminates a Service Order less than 48 (forty eight) hours before the scheduled performance of the Services commences, DSV may invoice the Customer an amount of 75% (seventy five percent) of the agreed Price for terminated Services. The Customer shall reimburse the cost incurred by DSV in good faith regardless of the time of termination of the Service Order sent to DSV.

11. Insurance

11.1. DSV has the General Third Party Liability Insurance of a Freight Forwarder, Transport Provider and Logistic Operator which covers liability set out in the current regulations and stipulated in these Terms and Conditions.

11.2. Unless specifically agreed in writing DSV shall not take out Cargo Insurance on the transported, handled or stored Goods. As DSV's liability is limited in accordance with the General Terms Section 12 DSV encourages the Customer to take out a Cargo Insurance to cover the Goods during transport, handling and storage. Taking out Cargo Insurance requires contact of the Customer with DSV's office and requires acceptance by the Customer conditions of Cargo Insurance stipulated by DSV for the Goods indicated by the Customer.

12. Export Controls

12.1. The Customer shall ensure that the Goods may be legally exported or imported to or from the origin or destination in respect of the applicable export control legislation.

12.2. The Customer shall furthermore perform all necessary "Denied Party Screenings" of the commercial parties involved and ensure that the Goods are not subject to restrictions, embargoes or other legal limitations. It is the obligation of the Customer to obtain all necessary licenses related to the Goods. DSV may reject to perform Services due to issues of export control if DSV reasonably deems (i) the origin, destination or country of transit to be a restricted or embargoed country, (ii) the Goods to be a restricted commodity or any of the involved parties to the trade to be a denied or excluded party.

12.3. The Customer shall indemnify DSV for all export control costs, charges, fines, penalties and legal fees arising from the Services due to the Customer's negligent or wilful misconduct. This obligation of indemnification shall not apply if DSV has acted negligently in respect of export control requirements in relation to the specific Service.

12.4. DSV shall not be liable for delays caused by inspections conducted by DSV with the aim of finding out possible violations of export control rules.

13. Liability

13.1. Transport Services:

13.1.1. The scope of DSV's liability in the performance or undue performance of international Transport Service, including (a) loss, (a) decrement of or damage to Goods shall be determined pursuant to the provisions of the Convention on the Contract for the International Carriage of Goods by Road (CMR Convention) of 19 May 1956 (Journal of Laws of 1962 No. 49, item 238, as amended) (hereinafter "the CMR Convention"), with reservation to provisions of Section 13.1.3. of these Terms and Conditions.

13.1.2. The scope of DSV's liability in the performance or undue performance of domestic Transport Service, including loss, decrement of or damage to Goods shall be determined pursuant to the provision of the Transport Law with the reservation that DSV's liability whenever is limited to EUR 25 per each kilogram of lost or damaged Goods, and the maximum absolute liability of DSV in such a case is limited to EUR 100,000 for a single loss or a series of losses arising out of one event. Mentioned in this Section limitation of liability shall not apply if damage follows from DSV's wilful misconduct or gross negligence.

13.1.3. The scope of DSV's liability in the performance of International and domestic Transport Services for Goods in the DSV Courier Services System (DSV XPress) shall be determined according to Rules of Procedure for Courier Services.

13.2. Warehousing Services: DSV shall be liable for any damage resulting from a loss or damage of the stored Goods from the moment they were received in the warehouse until the moment they are released to a person authorised to receive such Goods. DSV is liable for damages and losses of the stored Goods shall be limited to EUR 10 per kilogram of lost or damaged Goods, and the maximum absolute liability of DSV in such a case shall be limited to EUR 250,000 for one damage or a series of damages arising out of one event. Regardless of the provisions above, DSV shall not be liable for loss, decrement of or damage of Goods or delay or non-performance of Warehousing Services arising from the special risks inherent in one or more of the following circumstances:

- an act or omission of the Customer or Owner or Non-party acting on its behalf,
- compliance with the instructions given to DSV by the Customer, Owner or Non-party acting on its behalf,
- insufficiency of the packing or labelling of the Goods, except where such service has been provided by DSV,
- handling, loading, stowage or unloading of the Goods by the Customer or Owner or any person acting on its behalf,
- inherent vice of the Goods or natural loss of mass or weight or natural deterioration of the Goods not caused by any action of DSV,
- riots, civil commotions, strikes, lockouts, stoppage or restraint of labour from whatsoever cause,
- fire, flood, storm, explosion or theft,
- events of Force Majeure,
- shortages and defects of the Goods were ascertained in originally packed Goods were in undamaged bulk packages, provided that after the bulk packages are opened and shortages or damages are detected, DSV shall notify the Customer in writing, providing details of such damage, which was not caused by any action or negligence of DSV.

13.3. Freight Forwarding Services: The scope of DSV's liability for the performance or undue performance of Freight Forwarding Services shall be determined pursuant to the provisions of Article 799 of the Civil Code, with the reservation that the liability of DSV for loss or damage of the Goods shall be limited to SDR 2,00 (Special Drawing Rights two) per kilogram of gross weight of the damaged or lost Goods, with absolute maximum of 100000 SDR per event or series of events. In the case of delay of performance of Freight Forwarding Services DSV's liability shall be limited to the Price for Freight Forwarding Services. Moreover, DSV shall have the full benefit of all rights, limitations and exclusions of liability available to the sub-contractor in the contract between DSV and the sub-contractor and in any law, statute or regulation and the liability of DSV shall not exceed the amount recovered, if any, by DSV from the sub-contractor.

13.4. Consultancy Services and Additional Services: For Consultancy Services and for Additional Services DSV's liability shall be limited to the total sum of the fees paid by the Customer.

13.5. Neither Party shall be liable to the other Party for any indirect damage or consequential losses that are borne by the other party as a result of tort, negligence, breach of statutory duty, non-performance or undue performance of the Service Order or the Agreement, in particular not be liable for loss of reputation or loss of goodwill and/or business.

13.6. In case of withdrawal from the Agreement/Service Order by the Customer for reasons attributable to DSV or in case of withdrawal from the Agreement/Service Order by the DSV for reasons not attributable to the Customer, DSV is not liable for losses that arise due to the lack of performance of Services towards the Customer who is not consumer as defined by the Civil Code. The above limitations of DSV's liability shall not apply if DSV causes the damage by his gross negligence or his intentional misconduct.

13.7. The scope of DSV's liability for:

- non-performance of Service, or
- untimely performance of the Warehousing or Forwarding Service, or
- undue performance of Service in a scope other than loss, decrement of or damage to Goods,

16.8. If the Customer provides DSV with personal data of his employee or co-worker, he is obliged to immediately transfer, on behalf of DSV Road, to such an employee or co-worker the information clause indicated in Para. 16.7. above.

17. Final Provisions

17.1. DSV may subcontract the Services in whole or in part without the Customer's prior consent. The subcontracting of the Services shall not release DSV from its obligations under the Service Order or the Agreement.

17.2. Any dispute arising out of or in connection with the understanding, interpretation, performance or breach of these Terms and Conditions shall be settled by a court competent for the seat of DSV.

17.3. These Terms and Conditions shall be governed by the laws of Poland. In all matters not stipulated in these Terms and Conditions the CMR Convention, the Transport Law Act, the Act of 23 November 2012 – the Postal Law, and the Polish Civil Code shall apply.

17.4. These Terms and Conditions were made in Polish and in English. In the event of any discrepancies between the Polish and the English version, the Polish version shall apply.

17.5. At any time DSV shall have the right to unilaterally amend these Terms and Conditions by publishing the amendments on DSV's website www.dsv.com/pl-pl/. In case any Agreement was concluded or Offer was submitted by DSV after such publication, those will be subject to the amended Terms and Conditions.

17.6. The present Terms and Conditions enter into force on February 1st 2024 and supersede previous General Rules of Services provided by DSV Road Sp. z o.o. dated on September 1st 2022.

17.7. These Terms and Conditions are available at a request at the seat of DSV as well as can be found in electronic form on the website www.dsv.com/pl-pl/ and they can be download and printed.
